

UEFA EURO 2016: Next week's “Press tours” programme

Every day during UEFA EURO 2016, the City of Paris organises a “Press tour” in order to discover one of the city’s aspects on topics such as sports, culture, environment or innovation. Subscribe now!

Hosting UEFA EURO 2016 will be a great opportunity for Paris to assert its identity as an open, intelligent, innovative, sustainable and creative city in the eyes of the world. From June 13th to July 9th, Paris will propose “Press tours” to discover the different aspects of the city regarding sports, culture, environment or innovation.

You will discover Paris’ symbolic monuments as well as more secret places that embody the capital’s identity and contribute to its international outreach.

Press tours departures will take place every morning at 09:30 a.m. outside the Media Centre of the Eiffel Tower Fan Zone. A minibus will insure your transportation and bring you back at 01:00 p.m.

Warning: you cannot join the press tour along the way.

The number of tickets being limited, a prior accreditation is required.

Here are next week’s press tours:

Monday, July 4th: Paris and the innovation

- Ateliers de Paris (Paris’ Workshops): This incubator, dedicated to art, design and fashion professions, has a role of economic accompanying, of advice and of exhibition gallery.
- Viaduc des arts (Arts viaduct): For 20 years, this former railway has been welcoming artisans, masters of Arts and designers. This is a unique place that highlights art professions.

Tuesday, July 5th: Paris and the environment

- Niki-de-Saint-Phalle floating garden: The gardens of Niki-de-Saint-Phalle Seine banks archipelago were inaugurated on June 19th, 2013. With a total surface of 1,800 m², its five islands offer a green promenade near the water.

Wednesday, July 6th: Paris and the culture

- In the Eiffel Tower's backstage: Symbol of Paris, the Eiffel Tower will reveal its secrets from the hydraulic lift to the Jules Verne roof. Nowadays, it welcomes 7 million visitors per year. Throughout the years, the Eiffel Tower saw exploits, extraordinary illuminations and prestigious visitors. This legendary and audacious site always inspired artists and challenges.

Friday, July 8th: Paris' surprises

- Discovery of the Grand Hôtel Terminus: This jewel of Parisian hotel trade overflows with stories, secrets and talents. The playwright Georges Feydeau loved this prestigious haussmannian place. You will meet amazingly skilled professionals who will show you the backstage of this place and of their work. Close to the Garnier Opera House, you will experience the buzzing activity of this institution that offers top of the range services to the most demanding visitors.

Saturday, July 9th: Vélib' ride in Paris

- A Vélib' ride to discover Paris.

Press contacts:

Audrey Keita and Mélanie Rigaud / +33 1.42.76.49.61 / presseuro2016@paris.fr