

UEFA EURO 2016: First tour of the Eiffel Tower Fan Zone

Friday June 10th, 02:15 p.m. at the Eiffel Tower Fan Zone (7th arr)

On Friday, Jean-François Martins, Deputy Mayor of Paris for Sport and Tourism will lead the very first visit of the Eiffel Tower Fan Zone before its public opening at 04:00 p.m. This central location of the festivities organised on the occasion of UEFA EURO 2016 will enable Parisians as well as all visitors of all ages to live a unique football experience.

The Eiffel Tower Fan Zone can accommodate up to 92.000 supporters and will enable Parisians and visitors to benefit from the best conditions to watch all broadcasted matches of the competition and enjoy a full entertaining programme of innovative, cultural and sportive events.

A giant screen of unprecedented dimensions (420 m<sup>2</sup>) will broadcast the 51 matches of the competition. A series of pavilions, recreation and catering areas will offer supporters many possibilities to enjoy themselves and have a nice time with family and friends around the values of sport.

Jean-François Martins will give you a tour of the different spaces of the Fan Zone and will answer your questions.

Please note: only journalists whose accreditations were accepted and who already collected their badges will be allowed on the tour.
