

UEFA EURO 2016: A “Midis de l’Euro” week in the Parisian schools restaurants

On the occasion of UEFA EURO 2016, Parisian schools restaurants are mobilising by offering the children the “Midis de l’Euro” (Euro championship’s lunches) from June 13th to June 19th. The objective is to have the schoolchildren discover Europe’s gastronomy!

Within the framework of UEFA EURO 2016, the City of Paris launches the “Midis de l’Euro” operation from June 13th to June 19th: 14 arrondissements volunteered to offer Parisian schoolchildren menus in the colours of the competing countries.

Jean-François Martins and Alexandra Cordebard, Deputy Mayors of Paris and Hermano Sanches-Ruivo, Deputy Counsellor of Europe will have lunch on Thursday June 16th in the Baudelaire secondary school (12th arrondissement) in presence of Catherine Baratti-Elbaz, Mayor of the 12th arrondissement. Spain will be paid a tribute with a typical Iberian meal!

“It is a real pleasure to see schools living the Euro championship in their own way and therefore giving children the opportunity to discover meals from all over Europe!” rejoices Alexandra Cordebard, Deputy Mayor of Paris for school matters.
